Observations... From Around Town

(BY JAY WHOZIT)

And they say that nothing exciting ever happens in a small town—well you can take it from yours truly that plenty, not only can but has happened here within the past few weeks—politically. . . . A private firm of auditors employed by the city officials to check the city's financial standing have filed a report which is published in this issue. State Auditors are still at work. . . . Commissioner W. L. Bourgeois resigned after sixteen years in office, due to ill health. . . . and an election has been called for Saturday, June 4th, for the purpose of choosing his successor. . . . the Spring Pilgrimage of Coast Garden Clubs visited this section on Sunday past, and Providence really smiled down on them, with a perfect day for the outing, bright sunshine, cool and crisp, with not a cloud in the sky, truly a beautiful setting for just such a venture. . . . in case you have forgotten, folks, Hancock County has not yet met its Red Cross Quota, lacking some $700.00, so please, if you haven't sent in your contribution it still is not too late to do your share. . . . George Suzeneau, Jr., who was born, reared and educated here in Bay St. Louis has been named census supervisor for the business district of New Orleans in the 1950 Federal census, congratulations George. . . . Bay St. Louis officials admit that the city treasury is enriched in the amount of $600.00 per month as a result of taxes levied on slot machines, and now along comes a statement from state Attorney General Greek L. Rice that the tax is illegal. . . . the Attorney General says, in part, "No city in Mississippi has authority to legalize gambling and that is what slot machines are."

So what now? . . . And Mayor Carver according to the Times-Picayune denies that there are any slot machines in Bay St. Louis. Have you lost your eyesight Warren? . . . it was announced this week that Miss Patricia Gex, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lucien M. Gex, will resign as queen of the St. Joseph Academy May Festival on May 7th, with Miss Betty Colson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Colson as maid of honor. . . . the winning sponsor in the American Legion Egg Derby, announced last Saturday, was Miss Georgette Mays, number three in the entries, and paid off at odds of eight to one. . . . the Bay-Waveland Garden Club will sponsor a Flower Show this Saturday in the Bay High School gymnasium and everyone is invited to enter. . . . the city officials recently requested the Mississippi State Board of Health to make an inspection of the city water supply, and a report of the findings of this inspection appears elsewhere in this issue, along with certain recommendations. . . . several candidates for the unexpired term of Commissioner W. L. Bourgeois, who resigned this week, have already announced and it is thought that several more will enter the race. . . . money from the rackets to buy a police car for Bay St. Louis' Chief of Police to enforce the laws—what laws—parking—a few inches over a yellow line on the Beach—what a joke.

Candidate For City Commissioner

J. CYRIL GLOVER

Bay St. Louis, Mississippi, Wednesday, April 20, 1949
To the Qualified Electors of the City of Bay St. Louis:

I wish to announce my candidacy for City Commissioner to fill the vacancy created by the resignation of Mr. W. L. Bourgeois in the special election to be held on Saturday, June 4, 1949.

If the last election I was a candidate for the office of City Commissioner feeling that I could accomplish some good for the people of the City of my birth by changing the policies of the previous administration that the people repudiated at the polls. While I was not elected in this, my initial venture in politics, I did receive in excess of four hundred (400) votes as an Independent Candidate for which I am deeply grateful. This has encouraged me to feel that a large portion of my fellow citizens and friends had trust and confidence in my integrity of purpose which leads me to present myself again as a Candidate for City Commissioner.

A brief outline concerning my background, education and qualifications is submitted for your consideration: I received my Grammar and High School education at St. Stanislaus College, graduating in 1922. I studied Engineering for four years at Mississippi A & M College and Tulane University. I have held positions requiring both administrative and executive ability as follows: Administrative Assistant to the Vice-President, W. Horace Williams Construction Company, New Orleans; Office and Personnel Manager together with Director, Inventory and Stock Control Departments, U. S. Naval Advance Base Depot, Gulfport;

However the party is free and will have all sorts of goodies including a real Birthday Cake. Mrs. Wentworth, is being assisted by Mrs. George Anderson and Mrs. Roger Boh. Members are urged to make it a date and remember the day is next Wednesday, April 27th from 3 to 5 p. m. at Mrs. Roger Boh's residence.

Mrs. H. J. Thompson Speaks At Circle Meeting

Mrs. H. J. Thompson was the speaker at the Circle meeting of the Womens Missionary Society of the First Baptist Church, which met at the home of Mrs. T. B. Sellers on Tuesday afternoon. The meeting opened with prayer by Mrs. J. J. Losch and Miss Sallie Pearson gave the devotion. Mrs. Thompson gave the salient points of the state conference of the Council of Church Women held at Jackson. Mrs. Thompson was the representative of the Bay St. Louis group. She announced that the president of the state council will be in Bay St. Louis in May to meet with the local council.

Property Officer and Property & Supply Supervisor, U. S. Government, New Orleans; Real Property Negotiator, War Assets Administration, Dallas, Texas, being responsible for the sale or lease of industrial and non-industrial real property at seven surplus Government installations located in Mississippi and Louisiana; Office Manager and Assistant Superintendent, Hyde Construction Company, Jackson, Mississippi. I am presently employed by the City of Bay St. Louis as Superintendent of the Natural Gas Division, a position which was created by the City Council in July 1947 at the request of the Bonding Company. I have held this position for the past four months, and have had an opportunity to gain an insight as to the operation of our City Government and feel that through such experience together with my other positions of trust, I am qualified to render valuable service to our City as one of your Commissioners.

I earnestly solicit the support of every qualified voter in the City of Bay St. Louis and if I am elected one of your Commissioners, I will initiate and support only such policies and measures as will redound to the betterment of the citizens of Bay St. Louis. I shall support all measures that tend to this end and shall vigorously oppose the wasteful and useless expenditure of the Taxpayer's money, and it shall be my aim to place the City on a sound financial basis.

I sincerely request that you give my candidacy favorable consideration, and respectfully solicit your vote and support.

Respectfully submitted,
J. CYRIL GLOVER.

"51" Desk Set	17.50
The above listed items, constitute only a few of the many items listed on various bills during the past three years.

It appears evident that the above items could not be used by the City of Bay St. Louis, with exception of the high-priced Pen and Pencil sets (none of which are now in the City Hall), and that they were placed in other channels. The City owns no boats nor garages, nor is it in the fishing business.

The Audit presently being conducted by the State will aid greatly in determining whether or not these items along with numerous others, were expenditures the tax payers should pay.

As your Commissioner, it is not my policy to violate the law, nor to make unnecessary expenditures of the Tax Payers money, nor to "protect" anyone who has violated that trust, but to collect all of the money justly owed to the City and to be honest and cautious in the expenditures of it.

There is no question in my mind that your City, operated on such a basis, could readily be placed on a sound financial basis. Neither do I think it necessary for the City to resort to the collection of money from slot machines for the operation of the City Government, thus acting as a shield for the "syndicate" and "racketeers." Our City has gained some very unfavorable publicity in the newspapers in the past few days from such action of the Council. The minutes of the meeting of the Commission Council on Jan. 17, 1949, will reveal that when this Ordinance, placing a tax of $5.00 on slot machines, the other two members of the Council voted "yes," and I voted "nay" and gave as my reason that I thought this ordinance placed the city in the "gambling business," and thought the City could operate on the legal revenue collected. At the time I was advised by legal counsel that the City could not place a tax on an "illegal" object. This has been borne out by an opinion of the Attorney General of the State of Mississippi, as was published in the Times-Picayune article this past Wednesday.

Our city, operated on an honest, business-like basis, can be the garden spot of the Coast.

OUR TOWN

By WARREN J. CARVER

In this issue of the Echo appears a statement in letter form submitted to the Commission Council by the firm of Taylor, Powell, Wilson & Hartford, Certified Public Accountants. The amount of $11,410.09 shown by the statement to be due the City funds for the years 1947 and 1948, on account of ad valorem taxes only has been turned in to the proper fund by the Tax Collector upon notice having been given.

An inspection of the public water supply was recently completed by the Mississippi State Board of Health and their report is as follows:

On March 24, 1949 in company with Mr. Wayne Allison of the Hancock County Health Department, an inspection of the Bay St. Louis public water supply was made.

The source of supply are four wells. Two flowing wells discharge direct to a ground storage reservoir. One well located near the reservoir is equipped with a gas motor driven turbine pump that has discharge direct to the distribution system. A small four inch flowing well is located out on the distribution system. This well is equipped with an electrical driven Centrifugal pump which has discharge directly to the distribution system.

There is one Centrifugal service pump. This pump is powered by a gas engine. The pump has suction to the concrete storage reservoir and discharges directly to the distribution system.

The ground reservoir has a volume of 475,000 gallons. A 75,000-gallon elevated tank floats on the distribution system.

Very little is known about the distribution system. The storm did a considerable amount of damage to the line along the water front. Only temporary repairs have been made to this line and leakage was observed at the time of the inspection.

It was reported that during the summer months that very low or possibly negative pressures exist in some parts of the distribution system.

It was reported that the service pump was operated approximately nine hours per day and the deep-well pump approximately fifteen hours per day. These two pumps are rated at 750-gallons per minute each.

Based on the reported hours of pump operation, more than one million gallons of water per day is pumped into the distribution system. The 1940 Census reports a population for Bay St. Louis as 4138. Assuming the 1940 population as that now served and assuming that the hours of pump operation are correct, the per capita consumption is approximately 270 gallons. This is certainly an excessive per capita rate of consumption. The average for the State is considerably less than 100 gallons per capita. Based on the meager information obtained, it appears that excessive quantities of water are needlessly wasted.

RECOMMENDATIONS

1. That a competent Engineer be employed to make a complete investigation of the whole water works system to effectively and efficiently correct the undesirable features.

The Engineer should investigate:

(a) The adequacy of the distribution system with the view of eliminating the low pressure areas. When negative or low pressure exists in a piping system, the possibility of contamination being sucked into the pipes is great.

(b) The adequacy of the supply to meet peak demands.

(c) The best method of eliminating unnecessary waste.

(d) Study the piping system with a view of providing continuous chlorination. All public water supplies should have continuous chlorination to insure safety. It would require three chlorinating machines to provide adequate chlorination for the present method of operation because there are three separate sources or points at which the water is pumped to the distribution system. A rearrangement of the piping system and plan of operation would at least reduce the necessity of one machine.

Mr. W. J. Carver, Mayor.
Mr. Sylvan J. Ladner
Dr. C. M. Shipp, CHO.

Mr. Osoinach estimated the loss at $1,000, with no burglary insurance. An investigation was made by Sheriff B. D. Johnson, City Police Alene Sautier and Chief of Police, Frank Hobbs. It was reported that Arceneaux's Super Service station had also been entered on Friday night but nothing was reported missing. The safe had been rifled but there was no money, and valuable papers were found on a table in the rear of the building.

Bay Waveland Garden Club Flower Show To Be Held Saturday, - Sunday April 23-24

With the beautiful spring weather so conducive to flower growing the Bay-Waveland Garden Club is expecting a large exhibit in its annual Flower Show to be held on April 23 and 24 at Bay High Gymnasium.

There will be plenty of space for all exhibits and there will be a special place reserved for the exhibits entered by the Boy and Girl Scout Troops. There will also be space reserved for Hancock County Home Demonstration Clubs' exhibit. The nice feature about the Flower Show is that you do not need to be a member of the Bay-Waveland Garden Club to enter your flowers. Hours: Saturday 3 to 6 P. M.
Sunday 2 to 5 P. M.

Following are the schedule and rules governing entries:

1. Containers must be furnished by entrants and only clear glass containers for specimens will be accepted.
2. Exhibits will be allowed only one entry under each classification.
3. Potted plants must be in exhibitors possession for at least three months.
4. All entries in cultural classes must be raised by the exhibitor.
5. Exhibits must be entered Saturday morning, April 23rd from 8 to 11 A. M. Late entries will be marked "not for competition."
6. Exhibits must be removed by owner between 5 and 6 P. M. on Sunday.

LUICKART-WESTON

NUPTIALS

The marriage of Miss Maie Weston, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clement Walker Weston, and Dr. Carl Bryan Luickart, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Luickart of Buenos Aires, which was solemnized at the home of the bride in New Orleans on Saturday, April 9, claimed interest here because of the bride's father who is the son of Mrs. David Weston and the late Mr. Weston (Uncle Dave of Logtown).

The wedding was one of the larger social affairs of this season and claimed the attention of the social world of New Orleans where the family has been residing for a number of years.

The wedding was celebrated at 5 in the afternoon and the officiating ministers were Rev. C. Julian Bartlett and Rev. Charles L. McGovern, rector and assistant pastor of St. Paul's Episcopal Church.

In the beautifully decorated home before an improvised altar which was arranged between two windows in the end of the drawing room the bride entered with her father wearing a wedding gown of heirloom lace used by brides in her mother's family for several generations. Worn over white satin the gown was fashioned with a long fitted bodice and a full skirt which, ended in a train. The veil was of heirloom lace and worn by five brides on her paternal side and was caught to the back of her head with a spray of lilies of the valley. She carried a white lace fan from which fell a cascade of white spray orchids. Her attendants were her sisters Miss Constance Weston as maid of honor and Miss Judith Lee Weston as her junior bride's maid. They wore sheer white organdie over yellow taffeta. The dresses were made with off the shoulder necklines and full skirts and at the waist were wide sashes of yellow taffeta. They carried colonial bouquets of yellow sweetheart roses and wore sprays of the same flowers in their hair.

The bride's maternal grandmother Mrs. Dewitt Morgan of Jackson, played the wedding marches and also Nassenets Meditation from Thais during the ceremony.

The reception was held in the courtyard of the home where Mrs. Weston was receiving in a long elevated dress with a low neckline edged with pink roses. The courtyard was colorful with azaleas, sweet olive, Confederate jasmine and other blooms.

For traveling the bride wore a chartreuse and grey print dress worn with a gray wool jacket and a white hat trimmed with crimson poppies and green veiling and her corsage was of white spray orchids.

The bride is a graduate of Metairie Park Day school and of Newcomb college and did graduate work at Alfred University and the Art students

BAY-WAVELAND
GARDEN CLUB HOLDS
APRIL MEETING

The major part of the program of the April meeting of the Bay-Waveland Garden Club was the report from the three junior garden clubs on the work they have been doing.

The S. J. A. club reported on trees and showed their scrap books and pictures which they had made of trees and leaves.

The Lakeshore club talked on beautification and told of the shrubs and flowers which they had planted on the school grounds.

The Taylor School had as its subject Birds and the children exhibited some of the work in pictures and scrap books which showed how they were able to classify birds.

The very interesting part was that these children could handle their own programs and each child introduced the next child who was to speak. Words do not tell the story as to what has been accomplished with the children in instilling within them a love for the beautiful. They have learned to bring from the woods to the schools the flora of the country. They have learned how much more pleasure can be found in knowing and protecting birds than in shooting them.

Mrs. E. H. Fahey, Jr., read a paper on Iris, the flower of the month—planting, cultivating, and kind of soil for the growing of Iris. Three potted specimens of Iris plants were given as door prizes and were won by Mesdames T. A. Schaeffer, Eugene Mogabgab and C. Newton.

Mrs. L. T. Boyd, who had attended the judging school at Biloxi gave a demonstration of the use of Scotch tape in the making of flowers and demonstrated with the making of what is termed a conversation piece—an arrange for a two at a table period.

It was announced that there will be a special meeting of the club on May 19 at the home of Mrs. Eugene Mogabgab when R. O. Monosmith, Landscape Horticulturist from Mississippi State College will be presiding. Mr. Monosmith gives half of league both in New York. She is a member of the Alpha Omicron Pi sorority.

Dr. Luickart is a graduate of the Louisiana State University and is a resident physician at Charity Hospital. He is a member of the Sigma Chi social fraternity and Alpha Kappa Kappa medical Fraternity. During World War II he was a medical officer in the U. S. Naval Reserve attached to the Marine Corps.

COUNTY AGENT NOTES

You have been hearing a lot lately about the recommendation to cease using DDT around dairy barns. The material recommended now for spraying dairy cattle and the inside of dairy barns is methoxychlor (Marlate).

This change in use of DDT does not mean that it will not be used at all. It is still the recommended poison for spraying beef cattle and other livestock and for controlling certain garden and field insects.

Methoxychlor will give better control of certain garden insects and is a safer material for garden spraying or dusting.

Studies by the Bureau of Entomology and Plant Quarantine have shown that DDT used on dairy cattle or present on fodder feed to dairy cattle may appear in the milk. They also say that DDT in small amounts can be found sometimes in milk, following ordinary use of the poison for fly control in dairy barns.

Because of the use of milk in the diets of babies, children and people of all ages, proper precautions must be taken to protect the milk supply. There is no justification, however, for public alarm as to the safety of the milk supply from the standpoint of DDT contamination.

Entomologists say that methoxychlor (Marlate) is a "cousin" of DDT, but is safer on warm blooded animals. It has about the same poison effect as rotenone. It usually kills insects quicker than DDT and will last about as long.

The recommendations for using methoxychlor are:

Horn Fly Control on Dairy Cattle
One pound (1 quart jar full) of 50% methoxychlor (Marlate) to 12 gallons of water. Or, 1 cupful of methoxychlor to 3 gallons of water. This mixture makes a 1/2% spray. Wet the backs, shoulders and necks of animals as with DDT. One pound (1 quart jar full) of

CELEBRATES FOURTH BIRTHDAY

The color scheme of green and white was carried out in decorations and refreshments and the large cake had on it four little green candles in white holders.

Winners in the competitive games were Barry Bontemps, Elaine Necaise, Joey Ziegler, Gayle Banderet.

Other children at the party were Ruby Lynn Bowen, Lynn Witter, G. Banderet, Pat McGinty, Ann Kirt, Peggy Monti, Stevie Kranky, Billy Monti, Berne Benigno, Betty A. Noto, J. J. Ploue, Alvin and Larry Genin, Hollie's aunts, Mrs. Herald Smith of Mobile and Mrs. Judson Corley of New Iberia, La., and his two little cousins, Sandra Delacer and Linda Smith of Mobile.

—Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Lacoste and young son E. J. Lacoste III are now making their home in Pascagoula where Mr. Lacoste is in business.

—Miss Irma Kenney, student at Louisiana State University, spent the Easter holidays here with her parents Mr. and Mrs. Lee E. Kenney. —Bernard Farr was home with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Horace Farr for the Easter holidays. Bernard is a student at Southwestern Louisiana Institute.

—Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Erwin spent last week at Philadelphia with Mrs. Erwin's family. Mr. and Mrs. Erwin went up for the graduation of Mrs. Erwin's sister Miss Jo Anne Johnson who was graduated from the Coal Water Vocational High School on April 8th.

—Mrs. Leo Nelho of Jennings, La., is visiting her brother-in-law and sister Mr. and Mrs. T. T. Robin.

50% methoxychlor to 3 gallons of water. This mixture makes a 2% spray. Wet the walls and ceilings as with DDT.

Methoxychlor can be bought as a 50% wettable powder. We have information at the county agent's office regarding firms from which it is available.

REMEMBER, the recommendation for spraying with DDT for beef cattle and other livestock and for crops is not changed. REMEMBER, also there is no need for alarm concerning the hazards of using DDT by proved recommendations as an insecticide.

In preparing recommendations for using DDT, entomologists always recognize that DDT, like other insecticides, is a poison. There is no evidence that the use of DDT according to recommendations of various Federal agencies has ever caused human sickness due to the DDT itself.

This is despite the fact that thousands of tons have been used annually for the past 4 or 5 years in the home and for crop and animal protection. However, minor poison symptoms may be produced by kerosene and various solvents used in DDT and practically all other insecticide mixtures.

April Pasture Hints

Start mowing clover fields to control weeds and keep clover from seeding.

It's time also to start alternating pastures to protect them for summer grazing.

In choosing the place for your Sudan field, select a location near the barn or pasture. Apply barnyard fertilizer, if it is available. Apply nitrates at time of seeding. Ask at the county agent's office for a copy of Leaflet 86, "Sudan or Sudan or millet."

S. J. INGRAM SPEAKS AT P. T. A. MEETING

S. J. Ingram, superintendent of city schools, was principal speaker at the April meeting of the P. T. A. held at the school on Tuesday.

Mr. Ingram talked on Career Day at Bay High and its significance to high school students. This is being held in a large number of high schools Mr. Ingram said, and to sum it up, briefly its chief aim and object is to help high school students to find themselves. Mr. Ingram said that there are only three high schools in the state that have a full time guidance instructor and Gulfport High is the only school on the coast to have one.

Mr. Ingram admonished parents to talk with their children as to the vocation they hoped to follow and to see that their high school course falls in the vocation they might choose.

The lack of full time guidance teachers has brought about Career Day in high schools and colleges and faculties are trying to help these young students to settle on some chosen vocation and fit themselves for it.

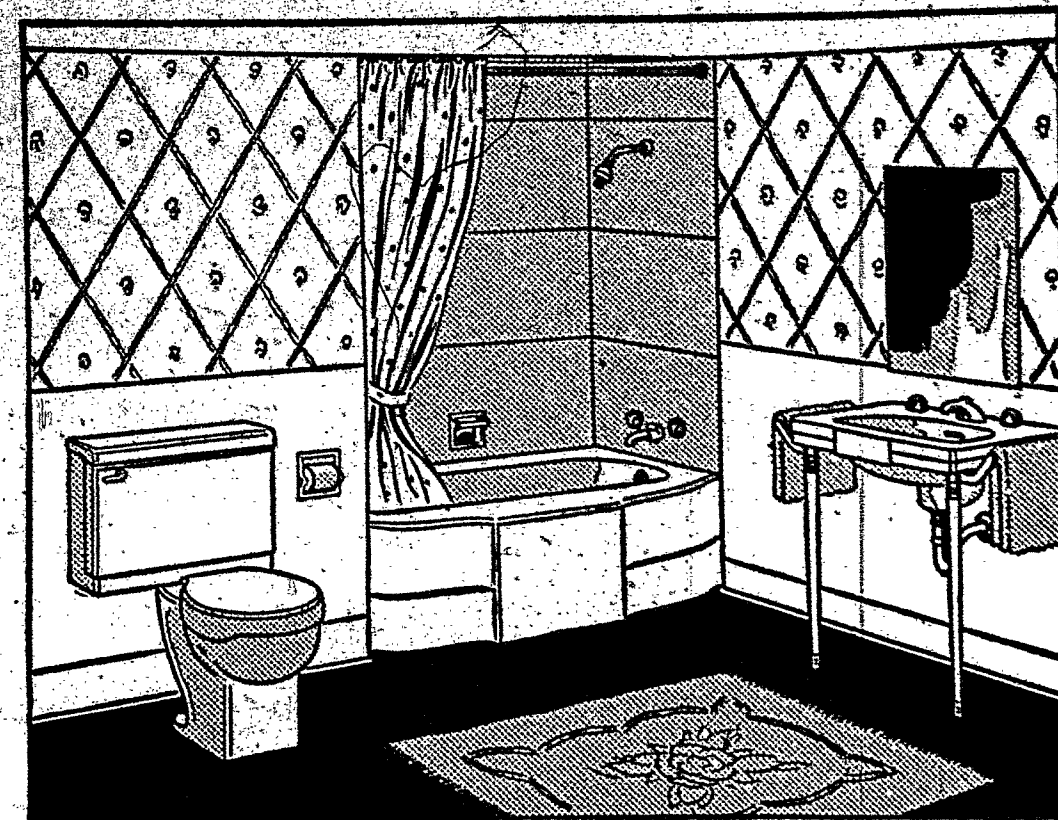

The nominating committee reported the following officers for the ensuing year. Mrs. S. J. Mauffray, president; Mrs. Dennie Tonkel, vice president; Mrs. C. J. Van Trier, secretary; Mrs. J. R. Shadoin, treasurer. Mrs. Van Trier had been filling out the unexpired term as secretary and expressed her appreciation of having been elected to the office and pledged her best to the work.

The third grade won the attendance prize for having the greatest number of parents and friends at the meeting.

Reports from different committees were heard and discussed. The matter of concrete benches, the cost per bench, the number needed, etc, came up for discussion. It was decided to purchase ten benches and the contract was given to Vincent Piazza.

Career Day Programs
At Bay High School
Prove Interesting

The Annual Career Day was held at the Bay St. Louis High School on Friday, April 8, with Miss Katherine Rea, student guidance teacher of Gulfport High school as principal speaker. Miss Rea discussed the importance of high school students selecting their vocation early in high school. This matter was discussed from the standpoint of the importance of selecting a career, the purpose for same and whether or not this vocation would contribute to society in the happiness and economic benefits to students choosing their careers.

After this discussion, the groups were assembled in different rooms where the following persons discussed different phases of life vocations.

The high school girls met with Miss Fannie Owings, member of the faculty of the Homemaking Department at Mississippi Southern College who discussed the importance of homemaking from the standpoint of housewives.

At the same time, part of a group of boys assembled to hear a talk on Radio Television, electronics and communications by Eldredge Helwick, who is a specialist in this field.

High school students interested in Business Education met with their commercial teacher to hear a talk on Business Education as a life vocation, by William V. Robinson of the Hancock Bank.

On Friday, April 1, the Bay High seniors were part of a group of high school seniors throughout South Mississippi, who met at Mississippi Southern College to take part in the college's annual Career Day.

On Monday, April 11, one of the officers from Keesler Field discussed with the senior class the opportunities of both boys and girls in service organizations, that are open to high school graduates.

These programs for high school students are only a part of the effort of the faculty toward properly guiding our students in selecting a vocation best suited to them, with due consideration to the fitness of the boy or girl for this vocation and the opportunity provided for employment and improvement in this field upon completion of high school.

It is interesting to note the poll taken on the 200 high school students enrolled as to what they expect to take up as their life vocation: Stenography, 34; House wife, 29; Beauty Culture, 27; Nursing, 26; telephone operator, 22; aviation, 19; auto mechanics, 14; accounting, 14; Physical Education, 13; Radio Repair

George Seuzeneaux, Jr. Appointed Census Supervisor in New Orleans

The following news story is taken from the New Orleans Item of April 13 and will be of interest to Bay St. Louis people.

"The man who will supervise the taking of census in the New Orleans business area said today that he expects to receive the fullest cooperation from local businessmen.

The supervisor is George L. Seuzeneaux, Jr., a professional personnel consultant, who was appointed by the Census Bureau on recommendation of Representative Hale Boggs.

Mr. Seuzeneaux said he was "pleasantly surprised" when he received the news of his appointment. He lives at 131 Grenadine Street, Metairie and maintains an office in the Carondelet building.

"I can't say too much about the census," he explained, "for the simple reason that I have received no instructions yet from Washington. I expect, however, that I will know in a few days about the area my work is to cover, how long the census will take to complete, and how I am to go about recruiting my helpers."

Under federal law, the census takers will be employed on a full time basis.

In normal times, a census is taken in the United States at 10 year intervals.

Mr. Seuzeneaux said that the result of the census in the business area would be invaluable to businessmen in following business trends and making plans for the future.

"For that reason," he pointed out, "we expect them to cooperate with us to the fullest."

Mr. Seuzeneaux said that he did not believe business men would mind revealing such things as their net and gross incomes, the amount of their sales and details about their pay rolls. All such information is kept in strictest secrecy by the Census Bureau and is handled only by sworn census employees. Census records are not available for purpose of taxation, regulation or investigation.

Mr. Seuzeneaux has managed the personnel department of several gov-

Knights of Columbus And Bay Rotary Club To Sponsor Two Local Boys To Magnolia Boys State

Two hundred boys from every county in Mississippi will go to Magnolia Boys' State, held every year at Jackson, Mississippi. Two boys have been chosen to represent Hancock County. They are Norton Haas of St. Stanislaus, sponsored by the Pere Le Duc Council Knights of Columbus, and Martin Noto of Bay High School, sponsored by the Bay Rotary Club. These boys, along with other delegates will practice running the State of Mississippi for eight days, starting June 4.

Boys' State is a plan by which the functions of good citizenship are taught. It is a program of education sponsored by the American Legion of Mississippi. The purpose of the plan is to teach the young men of tomorrow a constructive attitude toward the American form of government.

In Boys' State they have their own state government. From among the group of boys who will be there they elect their own officials to run the state. They learn the duties of the various public offices. They have their own legislature, introduce and argue their own bills. They make and enforce laws regulating the cities, have their own police force run the law courts and administer justice. By these various functions the individual boy has a chance to learn for himself that he is the one who makes the government what it is.

ernment branches since 1932 and is considered an expert in the field of human relations. For the past two years he has taught personnel management at Tulane University.

Mr. Seuzeneaux is the son of Mr. George Seuzeneaux and the late Mrs. Seuzeneaux and is a graduate of St. Stanislaus. He is married and has four children.
